“THE SUICIDE SQUAD”, a story with DC’s most dangerous supervillains, is now available on HBO Max

FROM THE THEATRE TO YOUR HOME: “THE SUICIDE SQUAD is part of HBO Max’s offerings aimed at making Warner Bros. films available, at no additional cost, only 35 days after their release in theatres in Latin American.Now available on HBO Max is a new mission by the imprisoned supervillains in THE SUICIDE SQUAD, a film written and directed by acclaimed director James Gunn. One of the most anticipated and awaited films of 2021 becomes part of the DC content catalog made available on the platform in order for fans to enjoy a new mission carried out by these anti-heroes filled with adventure, cynicism and fun.In THE SUICIDE SQUAD, acclaimed director James Gunn welcomes fans to the closest thing to hell: Belle Reve prison, which has the highest mortality rate in the United States and which houses the worst supervillains, who are determined to do whatever it takes to get out, even joining the super-secret, super-shady Task Force X.THE SUICIDE SQUAD was written and directed by James Gunn. It stars Margot Robbie (Harley Quinn), Idris Elba (Bloodsport), John Cena (Peacemaker), Jai Courtney (Captain Boomerang), Joel Kinnaman (Captain Rick Flag), Viola Davis (Amanda Waller), Pete Davidson (Blackguard), and includes participation by Sylvester Stalone (King Shark), among other talented actors.

