‘Maria Marta: the country club crime’ arrives july 17 on HBO Max

Starring Jorge Marrale and Laura Novoa, the fictional crime drama based on true events invites you to enter the intimate world of María Marta García Belsunce and to experience first-hand the shocking case.

Buenos Aires, June 28, 2022 - On July 17, 'MARÍA MARTA: THE COUNTRY CLUB CRIME' arrives on HBO Max; the new HBO original series based on the true story of the crime of María Marta García Belsunce, which occurred in Argentina in 2002. A local production that brings to the screen from fiction and with a new vision, one of the most shocking cases in Argentina. The long-awaited production will be available in its entirety on HBO Max and can also be seen weekly on HBO.

On October 27, 2002, María Marta García Belsunce was found lifeless by her husband, Carlos Carrascosa, in the bathroom of their home located in an exclusive gated community in the province of Buenos Aires. What at first appeared to be a domestic accident, became one of the most emblematic crimes in Argentina. After the murder, both her husband, Carlos Carrascosa, and her entire family become suspects. The crime puts the Argentine justice system in check: prosecutors, judges, journalists and society debate who killed María Marta. The husband faces a stigma that will haunt him for a long time, but he is surprisingly supported by two people outside the family, who without any apparent interest, believe in him and take the lead in a parallel investigation.

During 8 episodes of 45 minutes each, 'MARÍA MARTA: THE COUNTRY CLUB CRIME' proposes to approach the case of Maria Marta García Belsunce as never seen before and invites the audience to live in first person what they have always been told. With a look that offers new perspectives and based on a research work with multiple sources, this is a gripping and daring story that invites you to enter the intimate world of Maria Marta, to live closely what happened before, during and after the crime that shocked public opinion, justice and the media.

The cast is headed by Jorge Marrale (Carlos Carrascosa), Laura Novoa (María Marta García Belsunce), Carlos Belloso (Horacio García Belsunce), Muriel Santa Ana (investigator/blogger Belu Franessi), with the special participation of Mike Amigorena (prosecutor Marcos del Río), Guillermo Arengo (Guillermo Bártoli), Valeria Lois (investigator/blogger Juana Gomez Andrada); Esteban Bigliardi (John Hurtig), Ana Celentano (Irene Hurtig), María Leal (Elvira) and Nicolás Francella (neighbor Matías Centeno). Directed by Daniela Goggi, 'MARÍA MARTA: THE COUNTRY CLUB CRIME', a Warner Bros. Discovery Latin America production produced by Pol-ka for HBO Max, is scripted by Martín Méndez in collaboration with Germán Loza.

‘Maria Marta: the country club crime’ arrives july 17 on HBO Max

