The concert special 'Piano y mujer’ with Arthur Hanlon premieres july 26 exclusively on HBO Max

An event that celebrates women and Latin music, the concert special features performances by some of the most recognized female voices in Latin America: Evaluna Montaner, Goyo, Kany García, Natalia Jiménez and Nella.

Miami, July 2022 - HBO Max announces the premiere of PIANO Y MUJER on Tuesday, July 26, exclusively on the platform. The concert special was born from the live filming at the Faena Theater in Miami Beach, with the participation of five renowned women, whose voices accompanied the impeccable interpretation of pianist Arthur Hanlon, and a masterful orchestra composed entirely by women.

Produced by Sony Music Latin and Loud & Live, the emotional 52-minute concert is hosted by world-renowned pianist Arthur Hanlon, who is joined by five of the most impressive and exciting female voices in Latin music, including Latin GRAMMY winners Goyo (of ChocQuibTown), Kany Garcia, Natalia Jimenez, Nella and Latin GRAMMY nominee Evaluna Montaner. Together, they perform classics and new compositions in an unprecedented union of musicians and cultures with a repertoire that includes 'Evidencias' by Ana Gabriel, performed by Kany Garcia; 'Gotas de Lluvia' performed by Goyo; 'Cielo Rojo' performed by Natalia Jimenez; 'Hallelujah' by Leonard Cohen, performed by Evaluna Montaner; and "Me llaman Nella" performed by Nella.

At a time of global division, this intimate concert celebrates multiple cultures and ethnicities, bringing together artists from six countries, all united by their love of music and their desire to bring a common message to the world.

"The piano and the female voice are the ideal combination," says Arthur. "These five women, in addition to being extraordinary artists, are friends in life and music, having collaborated artistically with them many times. This special is not only the first time a piano and women's concept has been done, but it also demonstrates, once again, that music brings us all together."

BIOS:Arthur Hanlon-virtuous pianist/composer/arranger-is the most recognized name in Latin instrumental music. Born in Detroit to Irish parents, Arthur found his niche in Latin music, becoming the only pianist to reach Number One on the Billboard charts. A prodigious pianist with a master's degree from New York's prestigious Manhattan School of Music, Arthur also plays a distinctive blend of Detroit Motown, classical virtuosity, jazz, pop and Latin rhythms, and has recorded with superstars such as Ozuna, Luis Fonsi, Laura Pausini, Marc Anthony, Juanes, Myriam Hernandez, Fonseca, Sergio Vallin, ChocQuibTown, Orishas and Ricardo Montaner.

Evaluna Montaner is a Venezuelan singer, songwriter, director, actress and model who has become an icon of her generation. At the same time that she has conquered the artistic world, she has also taken the social networks like You-Tube, Instagram and TikTok by storm where she has millions of followers thanks to her warmth and her ability to identify with her fans.

Kany García is an award-winning Puerto Rican singer-songwriter, owner of a unique and incomparable voice, telling the stories of 21st Century women through her expressive interpretations and highly perceptive lyrics. Winner of six Latin GRAMMYs® throughout her career, her fifth studio album Soy Yo (2018) was named one of the 50 Best Latin Albums of the Decade by Billboard and, the music video for her single "Banana Papaya" alongside Residente won the 2019 Latin GRAMMY® in the Best Music Video category. That same year, she released her sixth album Contra El Viento, which was crowned Best Singer-Songwriter Album at the Latin GRAMMYs®. As a songwriter, Kany has written songs for artists such as Jennifer Lopez, Chayanne and Ha*Ash.

The concert special 'Piano y mujer' with Arthur Hanlon premieres july 26 exclusively on HBO Max

Gloria "Goyo" Martinez is the passionate and expressive voice of the Latin GRAMMY®-winning and GRAMMY®-nominated trio ChocQuibTown, and one of the most inspiring and socially conscious lyricists in Latin music. Her family's love of music marked her from an early age. Her style has influences such as Celia Cruz, Grupo Niche, and Lauryn Hill, and can be called a mix of urban, hip hop, R&B, alternative, and tropical music with a love letter to Colombian folklore. She is also known for advocating inclusion and equality for women and the Afro-Latino community.

Natalia Jimenez is an artist internationally recognized for her powerful voice, charisma and musical versatility. Positioned as one of the most important female figures in Latin music worldwide. GRAMMY and Latin GRAMMY winner whose influences include a mix of rock, pop, jazz and heavy metal. Throughout her career as lead vocalist for La Quinta Estación and as a solo artist, Natalia has sold more than 5 million albums worldwide and has recorded duets with top Latin music stars including Marc Anthony ("Recuérdame"), Daddy Yankee ("La Noche de los Dos"), Juan Gabriel ("Si Quieres" and Ricky Martin ("Lo Mejor de Mi Vida Eres Tu"), among others and has also performed live at the Latin GRAMMY Awards.

Nella, born in Venezuela, catapulted to international recognition on the strength of her powerful voice and undeniable presence. In a short time, she went from graduating from Berklee College of Music to winning the 2019 Latin GRAMMY® for Best New Artist. Not only has she packed stages in the United States, Venezuela, Mexico, Spain and the United Kingdom; she has also accompanied great singers of the Latin American scene as a soloist.

