HBO releases the first image from its original series TODXS NÓS

Filming for the Brazilian series wraps this month in São Paulo.

MIAMI, FL., August 14, 2019 – HBO's new original Brazilian series, TODXS NÓS (official English title TBC), just released its first image. In it, actress Clara Gallo appears as the protagonist, Rafa, an 18-year-old, non-binary pansexual, who decides to leave their life and family to move to São Paulo.

Created by Vera Egito, Heitor Dhalia and Daniel Ribeiro, the series will have eight 30-minute episodes where LGBTQIA themes will be addressed, while also presenting issues such as racism and harassment. In addition to Clara Gallo, the cast also includes Kelner Macêdo as Vini, Juliana Gerais as Maia and Gilda Nomacce as Inés, Vini's mother.

The filming of the series will wrap up this month in São Paulo.

TODXS NÓS was produced entirely with HBO Latin America's own investments.
